The Allgäu cycling circuit

When you pedal your favourite bike through the Allgäu cycling circuit, you don't need to be a cyclist from your local cycling club. You can enjoy a bike ride into the future. It is the world's first Austrian cycling circuit to meet the requirements of the European Bicycle Route network. The Allgäu cycling circuit is actually about 40 km long. The local Allgäu cycling circuit is actually about 60 km long. It is therefore absolutely recommended to enjoy yourself, to be on your own or with your bike, to enjoy a bike ride into the future.

The Allgäu, a winter wonderland

Experience the allures of wellness in winter sports. That is what a winter holiday in Allgäu offers. For everyone who does active sports, who is looking for the ultimate annual experience or who brings a sense of adventure to a winter wonderland. Allgäu offers an enriching winter sport.

For all who want to discover what Allgäu tastes like

Culinary pleasures. Allgäu sees more than just a look and a feel good. Using regional ingredients. Everything tastes like a good and a good is good. You will experience a region of contrasts – united in the Allgäu.

The Allgäu brand. Quality squared.

From the highest peak to the gentlest valley, Allgäu is a region of contrasts – united in the Allgäu. More under: www.mir-allgaeuer.de

Facts about Allgäu

Inhabitants: 444,170
Area: 4,640 sq km

The summit of hospitality.

Allgäu is one of the most popular holiday destinations – and one of the most attractive regions for all who want to experience the Allgäu.

Allgäu in landscape – a stroll through the footsteps of history and nature

The highest peak in Allgäu – and one of the most interesting regions for all who want to experience the Allgäu.

Plenty of space for all those who want more from life.

Allgäu is more than sun and surf – and one of the most interesting regions for all who want to experience the Allgäu.

Tales from Allgäu’s towns

History was written in Allgäu – with effects that were felt throughout Europe. Today the Allgäu is one of the most popular holiday destinations.

Hiking trilogy in Allgäu

Three trails, three routes, 427 kilometers, 12 stages, three terrain areas – what makes this an unusual experience for hikers looking for something different from the hiking trails of everyday life, in one of the most picturesque and relaxing landscapes in Germany.

The Allgäu attitude

Health and well-being are at home in Allgäu (Alpengeneigetheit Allgäu). Here you will find a place where you can relax and recharge your batteries. Discover Allgäu with the Allgäu attitude and fall in love with the Allgäu all over again.

The Alpina Wellness in Allgäu

Wellness and health are at home in Allgäu (Alpengeneigetheit Allgäu). Here you will find a place where you can relax and recharge your batteries. Discover Allgäu with the Allgäu attitude and fall in love with the Allgäu all over again.

The Allgäu cycling circuit

When you pedal your favourite bike through the Allgäu cycling circuit, you don't need to be a cyclist from your local cycling club. You can enjoy a bike ride into the future. It is the world's first Austrian cycling circuit to meet the requirements of the European Bicycle Route network.

The Allgäu, a winter wonderland

Experience the allures of wellness in winter sports. That is what a winter holiday in Allgäu offers. For everyone who does active sports, who is looking for the ultimate annual experience or who brings a sense of adventure to a winter wonderland. Allgäu offers an enriching winter sport.

For all who want to discover what Allgäu tastes like

Culinary pleasures. Allgäu sees more than just a look and a feel good. Using regional ingredients. Everything tastes like a good and a good is good. You will experience a region of contrasts – united in the Allgäu.

The Allgäu brand. Quality squared.

From the highest peak to the gentlest valley, Allgäu is a region of contrasts – united in the Allgäu. More under: www.mir-allgaeuer.de

Facts about Allgäu

Inhabitants: 444,170
Area: 4,640 sq km

The summit of hospitality.

Allgäu is one of the most popular holiday destinations – and one of the most attractive regions for all who want to experience the Allgäu.

Allgäu in landscape – a stroll through the footsteps of history and nature

The highest peak in Allgäu – and one of the most interesting regions for all who want to experience the Allgäu.

Plenty of space for all those who want more from life.

Allgäu is more than sun and surf – and one of the most interesting regions for all who want to experience the Allgäu.

Tales from Allgäu’s towns

History was written in Allgäu – with effects that were felt throughout Europe. Today the Allgäu is one of the most popular holiday destinations.

Hiking trilogy in Allgäu

Three trails, three routes, 427 kilometers, 12 stages, three terrain areas – what makes this an unusual experience for hikers looking for something different from the hiking trails of everyday life, in one of the most picturesque and relaxing landscapes in Germany.

The Allgäu attitude

Health and well-being are at home in Allgäu (Alpengeneigetheit Allgäu). Here you will find a place where you can relax and recharge your batteries. Discover Allgäu with the Allgäu attitude and fall in love with the Allgäu all over again.

The Alpina Wellness in Allgäu

Wellness and health are at home in Allgäu (Alpengeneigetheit Allgäu). Here you will find a place where you can relax and recharge your batteries. Discover Allgäu with the Allgäu attitude and fall in love with the Allgäu all over again.

The Allgäu cycling circuit

When you pedal your favourite bike through the Allgäu cycling circuit, you don't need to be a cyclist from your local cycling club. You can enjoy a bike ride into the future. It is the world's first Austrian cycling circuit to meet the requirements of the European Bicycle Route network.
Arriving by air
If you plan to arrive by air, the closest airports are Allgäu Airport in Memmingen, Lake Constance Airport in Friedrichshafen and the airports in Munich and Stuttgart. You can continue your journey by bus or train from all the airports.

Arriving by rail
Allgäu is easy to reach by rail from anywhere in Germany and neighbouring countries. Allgäu enjoys a quick and comfortable rail service from Munich via Travelling to Allgäu the Allgäu Express (AleX) to Oberstdorf and Lindau. Within Allgäu, you can reach many sights by rail too.

Infos:
www.bahnland-bayern.de

Arriving by car
Two motorways run across Allgäu: the A7 from Ulm to Füssen and the A96 from Lindau to Munich. All the larger towns have car parks where you can leave the car, also for longer periods.